From an attentive consideration of the above statement, which is drawn up with as much accuracy as possible, from the Rolls and Journals of both Houses of Parliament, the following facts may be deduced:—

In the first place it appears, that, since the year 1509 (when it is generally supposed that the duration of Parliaments was extended beyond one year), only four Parliaments have existed beyond seven years, and that only ten more have had a sexennial duration.

In the second place, it is sufficiently evident, that of the rest, only seven Parliaments have lasted above five years, only four Parliaments above four, and but three above three years.

Thirdly, of the remaining number, only eleven existed above two years, and no less than thirty-seven for a shorter period.

Lastly, it is certain, that, one Parliament with another, the duration of each, since the reign of Henry VII., does not exceed the space of two years and about nine months, even including the long Parliament in the reign of King Charles I., and the still longer one which his son retained in existence for the enormous period of about seventeen years.

OFFICERS OF STATE.

THE LORD STEWARD'S DEPARTMENT.

The estate of the Queen's household is entirely committed to the Lord Steward, to be ruled and governed by his discretion; and all his commands in court are to be obeyed; his authority reaches over all the officers and servants of the Queen's house, except those of the Queen's chamber, stable, and chapel. Under the Lord Steward, in the compting-house, are the treasurer of the household, comptroller, cofferer, master of the household, clerks of the green cloth, &c. It is called the compting-house, because all the accounts and expenses of the Queen's household are daily taken and kept in it.

THE SECRETARIES OF STATE.

[Until the reign of Henry VIII. there was only one Secretary of State; and until the reign of Elizabeth, the Secretaries were never of the Privy Council. From that time to the present, there have been two Secretaries of State, and sometimes three; and thus a council has seldom been held without the presence of at least one of them. From the death of Queen Anne to the Rebellion of 1745, there was a third Secretary for Scotland; and from 1768, to the loss of America, in 1782, there was one for the colonies. The departments of the two Secretaries were, previous to 1782, divided into Northern and Southern, but are now divided into one foreign, the other domestic. With the Home Secretary, all grants, pardons, and regulations in civil matters of every kind, are made out and executed. To the Foreign Secretary belong all dispatches to and from other courts, and all business appertaining to the same. They have the custody of the privy signet, because the Queen's private letters are sealed with it. There are four Clerks of the Signet, who make out grants, patents, &c. which have the sign manual, to which the Signet being added, it is a warrant to the Privy Seal, as the Privy Seal is a warrant to the Great Seal. The Paper Office belongs to the Secretaries of State, where all papers, letters, memorials, negociations, &c., are deposited and preserved.]

THE LORD CHANCELLOR

Keeps the Great Seal, not to judge according to the common law, as other courts do, but to dispense with such parts as seem in some cases to oppress the subject; and to judge according to equity, conscience, and reason. Wherefore he is said to have two powers; one absolute, the other ordinary; the meaning of which is, he must observe the form of proceeding in other courts; yet, in his absolute power, he is not limited by the written law, but in conscience and equity. He may issue writs of habeas corpus at all times. He has power to collate to all ecclesiastical benefices in the Queen's gift, rated under 20l. per annum in the Queen's Books. His oath:—To do justice to all persons, poor and rich; the Queen truly to counsel, and to keep the Queen's counsel, and not to suffer the rights of the Crown to be any ways diminished.

[The Lord Chancellor and Lord Keeper are the same in power and precedence. Both are appointed by the Queen's delivery of the Great Seal; they differ only in this:—the Lord Chancellor hath also letters patent, the Lord Keeper hath none.]

The power of the Lord High Admiral hath, since the reign of Queen Anne, been executed by commissioners. The statute of Charles II. ascertains his authority in these words:—" That the Lord High Admiral for the time being shall have full power and authority to grant commissions to inferior vice-admirals or commanders-in-chief of any squadron of ships: to call and assemble courts martial, consisting of commanders and captains; and no courts martial, where pain of death shall be inflicted, shall consist of less than five captains at least; the Admiral's lieutenant to be, as to this purpose, esteemed as a captain; and in no case wherein sentence of death shall pass (by the articles for regulating the government of Her Majesty's ships of war, or any of them), except mutiny, there shall be execution of such sentence without leave of the Lord High Admiral, if the offence be committed in narrow seas. But in case any of the offences aforesaid be committed in any voyage beyond the narrow seas, then execution shall be done by order of the commander-in-chief." He appoints coroners to view dead bodies found on the coasts, and judges in the High Court of Admiralty. To him belong all fines and forfeitures of all transgressions at sea, and at the sea shore; and in ports, from the first bridge on rivers, to the sea; goods of pirates, waifs, wrecks, &c.]

ABSTRACT

THE PRINCIPAL LAWS

RELATING TO

ELECTIONS,

AND THE

PRIVILEGES OF MEMBERS OF PARLIAMENT;

TOGETHER WITH THE

FORMS OF LISTS AND NOTICES

APPLICABLE TO COUNTIES, CITIES, BOROUGHS, &c.

Issuing Writs under a General Election.

UPON summoning a new Parliament, a warrant, signed by the Queen, is issued to the Lord Chanceller, commanding him to issue so many writs as have been usual for the purpose of calling a new Parliament. Such writs are accordingly made out by the Clerk of the Crown*. These writs are in future to be framed according to the exigencies of the Reform Act.

Acts 7th and 8th William III., cap. 25, s. 1. Upon calling of every new Parliament, there shall be forty days between the teste and return of the writ.

Issuing Writs on a Vacancy during a Recess.

Act 24th George III., cap. 26, s. 2. The speaker is to issue his warrant, during a recess, for making out writs for electing members to serve in the room of those who shall die, or become peers of Great Britain, upon receiving notice, by certificate under the hands of two members, of the death of such member, or that a writ of summons has been issued under the Great Seal. The Speaker, upon receiving such certificate, shall forthwith cause notice to be inserted in the Gazette, and shall not issue his warrant until fourteen days after such insertion. To guard against inconvenience occurring by the death or absence of the Speaker, it is provided, that every Speaker of the House of Commons shall, within a convenient time after having been in office, at the beginning of every Parliament, by a written instrument under his hand and seal, nominate and appoint a certain number of persons, not more than seven, nor less than three members of the House, authorising them, or any one of them, to execute the powers given to the Speaker for issuing such warrants. No person so appointed shall be authorised to act, unless there be no Speaker of the House, or such Speaker be absent, nor any longer than such persons shall be members of the House.

Freedom of Elections.

Act 8th George II., cap. 30, s. 1. As often as there shall be an election of any Scotch peer, or members to serve in Parliament, the Secretary at War shall send proper orders in writing for the removing of soldiers to the distance of two or more miles from the place of election; who shall not make any nearer approach to such place, until one day, at the least, after the poll shall be ended, and the poll-books closed. Any Secretary at War, or person officiating as such, violating this clause, to be discharged from office, and rendered incapable of holding any office under Government.

By a resolution of the House, passed at the commencement of every session, "It is a high infringement of the liberties and privileges of the Commons, for any Lord of Parliament, or any Lord Lieutenant of any county, to concern themselves in the election of members of Parliament." By another resolution (17th), Journal 507, "It is highly criminal in any minister or servant under the crown, directly or indirectly, to use the powers of office in the election of representatives to serve in Parliament."

Officers of Excise and Customs are, by Act 5th William and Mary, cap. 20, s. 48, prohibited from interfering in elections.

ELECTIONS FOR COUNTIES.

Executing Writs, issuing Precepts, &c.

Act 23rd Henry VI., cap. 14. Every sheriff, after receipt of the writ, shall issue a precept to every mayor and bailiff of the cities and boroughs within his county, reciting the writ, and commanding them to choose by citizens or burgesses, as the case may be, for any city or borough, to come to Parliament.

Acts 7th and 8th William III., cap. 25, s. 14. The writs shall be delivered to the proper officer only, and the returning officer is to endorse on the writ the day he receives it, and make out the precepts; and, within three days after the receipt of the writ of election, shall cause such precepts to be delivered to the officer to whom the execution of such precept shall appertain.

Acts 7th and 8th William III., cap. 25, s. 2. No sheriffs or other officers whose duty it is to execute such writs of election, are to take any fee or gratuity whatsoever, for making out the receipt, delivery, return, or execution of any such writ or precept.

Act 25th George III., cap. 84, s. 4. Within two days after receipt of the writ, proclamation shall be made of the election, which must begin between the 10th and 16th days of the proclamation.

Act 18th George I., cap. 18, s. 7. Booths are to be erected, at the expense of the candidates, proportioned to the hundreds, &c.; and the sheriff shall also appoint proper clerks at each booth for polling, at the expense of the candidates, to be paid not exceeding one guinea per day each clerk.

Act 34th George III., cap. 73, s. 6. If any of the candidates shall, three days at least before any election, give notice in writing to the returning officer to provide proper places for administering the oaths of allegiance, supremacy, abjuration, &c. to the electors, such proper places shall be provided by the returning officers; the expense to be paid by the candidates, in equal proportions.

Act 2nd William IV., cap. 45, s. 61, 65, 68, 71, 72, provides for proclaiming courts by sheriffs, and their presiding there, by deputies, to take the polls, and for erecting booths, &c.—PRICE'S Election Guide, p. 107.

Acts 6th and 7th William IV., cap. 102, s. 1, provides additional places for taking the poll at county elections, on petition to the justices of any county, riding, &c., in England and Wales, in quarter sessions assembled; and such orders for the erection of additional polling places to be published in the London gazette.

Acts 6th and 7th William IV., cap. 102, s. 3. "At every contested Election of a Knight or Knights to serve in any future Parliament for any County, or for any Riding, Parts, or Division of a County, as many Polling Booths shall be provided at each Polling Place, as will allow One for every Four hundred and fifty Electors whose Names appear upon the Registry of the said County or Division of a County, and who may lawfully vote at such Polling Place; and the High Sheriff shall provide the same accordingly."

Proceedings at Elections.

Act 23rd Henry VI., cap. 14. The Sheriff is directed, upon the day appointed for election, to proceed in his full county, betwixt the hours of eight in the morning and eleven before noon.

Act 2nd George II., cap. 24. The proceedings commence by proclaiming silence, and then reading the writ of summons, immediately after which the sheriff is to read, or cause to be read, the whole Act, intituled, "An Act for the more effectually preventing Bribery and Corruption."

Election by the View.

In the first case, the determination is either by voices or show of hands, or collecting the friends of the respective candidates into separate bodies, or in such other mode as has been customary upon such occasions; the most usual way, however, is by the voices of the electors calling out the names of their favourite candidates.

Election by Poll.

Where such election is, however, not determined by the view, but a poll shall be required, the sheriff, under-sheriff, or such others as shall be by him deputed, shall forthwith there proceed, to take the poll in some public place appointed for that purpose.

Act 2nd William IV., cap. 45. The poll is now to be taken from names in the several registers made under the Reform Act; but persons not on the register may tender their votes to raise the question of their rights.—PRICE'S Election Guide.

The returning officer, on request of the candidates, shall appoint persons to administer the oaths of allegiance, &c.

Electors are to apply to such persons so appointed, before voting, who shall administer the oaths of allegiance, supremacy, &c., and give certificates thereof; and every such person, upon producing his certificate to the returning officer, shall be permitted to poll. Persons offering to vote without producing the certificate, shall immediately withdraw, and take the said oaths before they shall be permitted to be sworn.

Commencement of the Poll, &c.

Act 2nd William IV., cap. 45, s. 62. At every contested election for a county, the polling to commence at nine o'clock in the forenoon of the next day but two after the day fixed for the election, unless such next day but two be Saturday or Sunday, and then on the Monday following, at the principal place of election, and also at the several places appointed by the Boundary Act, and such polling to continue for two days only, such two days being successive days, i.e. for seven hours on the first, and for eight hours on the second day of polling, and no poll to be kept open later than four o'clock in the afternoon of the second day.

Act 2nd William IV., cap. 45, s. 63. The respective counties in England and Wales to be divided into the districts for polling, and to have the places for taking the poll, as settled and appointed by the Boundary Act.

Act 2nd William IV., cap. 45, s. 64. At every contested election for any county, the sheriff, under-sheriff, or sheriff's deputy, if required by or on behalf of any candidate on the day fixed for the election, or if it shall appear to him expedient, to cause to be erected a reasonable number of booths for taking the poll at the principal place of election, and also at each of the polling places, and cause to be affixed, on the most conspicuous part of each of such booths, the names of the several parishes, townships, and places for which such booth is allotted; and no person to be admitted to vote in respect of any property situate in any parish, &c., except at the booth so allotted; and if no booth shall be so allotted, then at any of the booths for the same district: but in case any parish, &c. shall not be included in any of the districts to be appointed by the Boundary Act, the votes in respect of property situate in any parish, &c. so omitted, to be taken at the principal place of election for the county.

Act 2nd William IV., cap. 45, s. 65. The sheriff may appoint deputies to preside, and clerks to take the poll, at the principal place of election, and also at the several places appointed for taking the poll for any county.

At the close of each day's poll, the poll clerks to enclose and seal their several books, and publicly deliver them to the sheriff, under-sheriff, or sheriff's deputy, presiding at such poll, who shall give a receipt for the same, and, on the commencement of the poll on the second day, deliver them back, so enclosed and sealed, to the persons from whom he received them; and on the final close of the poll, every deputy forthwith to deliver or transmit such poll-books, so enclosed and sealed, to the sheriff or his under sheriff, who shall keep the same, unopened, until the re-assembling of the court on the day next but one after the close of the poll, unless such next day but one shall be Sunday, and then on the Monday following, when he shall openly break the seals thereon, and cast up the number of votes as they appear on the several books, and shall openly declare the state of the poll, and make proclamation of the member or members chosen, not later than two o'clock in the afternoon of the same day.

Act 2nd William IV., cap. 45, s. 66. In all matters relating to the election of county members, the sheriff, under-sheriff, or any lawful deputy of such sheriff, empowered to act in all places, having any exclusive jurisdiction or privilege, in the same manner as he may act within any part of the sheriff's ordinary jurisdiction.

Act 2nd William IV., cap. 45, s. 68. At every contested election for any city or borough in England, except the borough of Monmouth, the returning officer, if required by or on the behalf of any candidate, on the day fixed for the election, or if it shall appear to him expedient, to cause to be erected different polling-booths for different parishes, districts, or parts of such city or borough which may be situated either in one place or in several places, and to be so divided and allotted into compartments as to the returning officer shall seem most convenient, so that no greater number than six hundred be required to poll at any one compartment; and the returning officer to appoint a clerk to take the poll at each compartment, and cause to be affixed, on the most conspicuous part of each of the said booths, the names of the several parishes, &c. for which such booth is allotted; and no person to be admitted to vote except at the booth allotted for the parish, &c. wherein the property may be situate in respect of which he claims to vote, or wherein his place of abode, as described in the register, may be; but in case no booth be provided for any particular parish, &c. the votes of persons voting in respect of property situate in any parish, &c. so omitted, or having their place of abode therein, and the votes of freemen residing out of the limits of the city or borough, may be taken at any of the said booths; and public notice of the situation, division, and allotment of the different booths to be given two days before the commencement of the poll, by the returning officer; and, in case the booths be situated in different places, the returning officer may appoint a deputy to preside at each place. And the poll-clerks, at the close of each day's poll, to enclose, seal, and deliver the several poll-books to the returning officer or his deputy, who shall give a receipt for the same; and on the commencement of the poll on the second day, deliver them back, so enclosed and sealed, to the persons from whom he received the same; and every deputy, on the final close of the poll, shall forthwith deliver or transmit the said poll-books, so enclosed and sealed, to the returning officer, who shall receive and keep all the poll-books unopened until the following day, unless such day be Sunday, and then till the Monday following, when he shall openly break the seals thereon, and cast up the number of votes as they appear on the several books, and shall openly declare the state of the poll, and make proclamation of the member or members chosen, not later than two o'clock in the afternoon of the same day: but the returning officer, or his lawful deputy, may, if he think fit, declare the final state of the poll and proceed to make the return immediately after the poll shall have been lawfully closed. No nomination to be made, or election holden, for any city or borough, in any church, chapel, or other place of public worship.

Oaths of Electors.

Act 2nd William IV., cap. 45, s. 48. Every elector, before he shall be admitted to poll, shall, if required, take the following oaths, or, if a Quaker, affirmation; viz:—

1. Are you the same person whose Name appears as A. B. on the Register of Voters now in force for the County of [or for the Riding, Parts, or Division, &c., or for the City, &c. as the case may be]?

[or for the Riding, &c., or for the City, &c., as the case may be, specifying in each case the particulars of the qualification as described in the Register]?

You do swear [or, being a Quaker, or Moravian, do affirm], that you are the same person whose Name appears as A. B. on the Register of Voters now in force for the County of [or for the Riding, Parts, or Division of the County of or for the City or Borough of as the case may be], and that you have not before voted, either here or elsewhere, at the present Election for the said County, [or for the said Riding, Parts, or Division of the said County, or for the said City or Borough, as the case may be.] So help you God.

Of amending Returns.

Returns were formerly amended by the returning officers; but, by a Resolution, April 20, 1690 (10th), Journal 377, they can only be amended by the House, for which purpose, when necessary, the clerk of the crown attends with his book, and amends it in the House, by erasing the names, or, in case of a double return, taking the void one off the file, and letting the other remain.

Nor may any person vote in any election in respect of any annuity or rent-charge granted after June 1, 1763, unless a memorial of the grant be duly attested and registered as aforesaid.

Nor may any one vote in right of any assignment of any annuity or rent-charge made before 1763, unless a certificate of the original annuity be entered as aforesaid; and if the assignment be made after the said 1st of June, then a memorial thereof, and of the grant, to be attested and registered, as is directed in cases of original grants.

ELECTORS OF CITIES, TOWNS, BOROUGHS, AND CINQUE-PORTS.

Electors as Freeholders.

Act 19th George II., cap. 28, s. 3. That no person shall vote for the election of members for any city or town, being a county of itself, in respect of any freehold, unless assessed to the land-tax twelve calendar months next before such election: provided that nothing shall extend to Persons voting, to have a freehold estate of 40*s.*, and to be in possession above twelve calendar months, except the same came to them, within such time aforesaid, by descent, marriage, marriage-settlement, devise, or promotion; and no person shall vote in right of any freehold fraudulently conveyed, or vote more than once at the same election, under penalty of 40*l.*

Of Burgage Tenures.

Definition.—Burgage tenure has been defined as one undivided and indivisible tenement, neither created nor capable of being created, within time of memory, which has immemorially given a right of voting; or an entire indivisible tenement, holden of the superior lord of a borough, by an immemorial certain rent, distinctly reserved, to which the right of voting is incident.

Of Electors as Freemen or Burgesses.

Every person, to be entitled to vote as a freeman or burgess, ought to be regularly admitted, and the entry thereof stamped, as directed by Act 5th George III., cap. 46, s. 1. By Act 3rd George III., cap. 15, no person claiming, as a freeman, to vote at any election, shall be permitted to give his vote, unless such person shall have been admitted to the freedom of such city, town, or borough, twelve calendar months before the first day of such election; but this not to extend to any person entitled to his freedom by birth, marriage, or servitude.

Act 12th George III., cap. 21, s. 1. Any person entitled to be admitted a citizen, burgess, or freeman, of any city, &c. town corporate, borough, cinque-port, &c. and applying to the mayor, or other proper officer, giving him notice, and specifying the nature of his claim; if such mayor, or other officer, shall refuse to admit such person, and a mandamus shall issue for compelling his admission, the mayor, &c. shall pay all costs.

In consequence of the constitution of some corporations admitting of freemen and burgesses being made either by purchase or favour, without any antecedent titles, and voting for members of Parliament, the Legislature, in some degree to check that privilege, which had been greatly abused in Durham, enacted, by Act 3rd George III., therefore called the Durham Act, as follows, viz.:—

None to vote at elections (except persons entitled to their freedom by birth, marriage, or servitude) as freemen who have not been admitted twelve months.

Officers of corporations, or other persons, wilfully antedating any admission, to forfeit 500*l.*

Of Electors as Inhabitants.

These must be—First, Inhabitants, householders; or, Second, Inhabitants paying scot and lot. In some cases, as in Peterborough, the electors consist of both descriptions of persons.

To be an inhabitant paying scot and lot, is now understood to mean a person who is rated, and pays the parish taxes.

Burgesses, Commonalty, Potwallers, and Populacy.

Burgesses are defined by Whitelock to be the inhabitants and freemen of boroughs or inhabitants of towns or boroughs enclosed or fortified.

Commonalty, by the particular constitution and corporate name of a place, may signify a restricted number; but its more proper and general acceptation comprehends the whole body of the inhabitants.

Populacy.—This term, in the case of Seaford, was explained by the House to mean inhabitant housekeepers, paying scot and lot; but in the case of Honiton, February 3rd, 1710—11, the word populace is used, both by the parties and the committee, as different from inhabitants.

Occasionalty is fatal to all descriptions of inhabitants.

With respect to what persons shall be deemed householders, it has been determined, that no person can be deemed a householder who does not possess the exclusive right to the use of the outward door of the building, although, by taking inmates, he may, for a time, have relinquished the exercise of that exclusive right; nor can a person whose habitation is composed of more apartments than one be so deemed, unless he possesses the exclusive right to the use of the staircase, door-way, &c. The house must also be a dwelling-house; and the legal meaning of the term householder, or inmate, must be determined on the general principles of the law of the land, and not on any thing suggested by local usage.

Act 26th George III., cap. 100. Any person voting as an inhabitant, paying scot and lot, &c., who shall not have been so six months previous to the election, shall forfeit 20*l.*; but this not to extend to persons acquiring possession in any borough by descent, devise, marriage, marriage-settlement, or promotion to any office or benefice, nor to persons claiming a right to vote under any other descriptions than inhabitants paying scot and lot.

Act 2nd William IV., cap. 45, limits most of the above qualifications to the present possessors. The same statute makes the occupation of houses, warehouses, counting-houses, shops, or other buildings, in cities, or boroughs sending members to Parliament.—s. 27.

Registration Act, 2nd William IV., cap. 45, s. 5. No person shall henceforth be permitted to vote in the election of knights of the shire, or members of Parliament, unless the property or other qualification in respect of which he is entitled to vote, be duly registered, according to the provisions of that Act*.

Members on double returns are incapable of sitting till the returns are determined by a Committee; and there is a resolution of the House to this effect, made at the commencement of every session.

Members who have taken their seats are ineligible for any other place, until they have vacated their former seats; but persons elected for one place may, before they take their seats, be returned for any other place; in which case, by an order of the House, they are to make their election by that day three weeks, for which of the places they will serve, provided there be no question upon the return from that place.

Pensioners of the Crown.

Act 1st George I., cap. 56, s. 2. No person having a pension from the Crown shall be capable of being elected a member of the House of Commons, under penalty of forfeiting 20*l.* for every day's sitting.

Of the Qualifications of Members.

Act 33rd Henry VI., cap. 14. Knights of the shires, for the Parliament hereafter to be chosen, shall be notable knights of the same counties, as shall be able to be knights, and no man to be such knight who stands in the degree of a yeoman, or under.

Act 9th Anne, cap. 5. No person shall be capable to sit and vote as a member of the House of Commons, who shall not have an estate, of freehold or copyhold, for his own life, or some greater estate, either in law or equity, over and above what will satisfy and clear all incumbrances, of the respective annual value hereafter limited, viz.—600*l.* per annum for every knight of the shire, and 300*l.* per annum for every citizen, burgess, or baron of the cinque-ports; and persons not being possessed of such estates respectively, their election and return shall be void.

* When Sir T. B. Thompson, who had filled the office of comptroller of the Navy, was (in 1816) appointed to the office of Treasurer of Greenwich Hospital, the electors of Rochester petitioned the House against his retaining his seat, which, after a debate, was voted to be vacant, by a majority of one only.

† The substance of this and the preceding oath, is as follows; viz.—that the member has an estate of sufficient value to qualify him according to the true meaning of the several Acts of Parliament, and such estate is situated as described in the paper signed by such member, and by him delivered to the Clerk of the House of Commons.

‡ Qualifications may be situated in England, Scotland, Wales, Berwick-upon-Tweed, or Ireland.

Of the Privileges of Members.

The most notorious of these are, privilege of speech, of person, of their domestics, and of their lands and goods. These privileges are as ancient as Edward the Confessor, and included formerly not only privilege from illegal violence, but also from legal arrests and seizures by process from courts of law; and by Acts 5th Henry IV., and 11th Henry VI., to assault, by violence, a member of either House of Parliament, or his menial servants, is a high contempt of Parliament, and there punished with the utmost severity.

This law and privilege of Parliament is part of the law of the land, and a member cannot be arrested, except in cases of treason, felony, and actual breach of the peace, without a breach of the privilege of Parliament; but all other privileges derogating from the common law, in matters of civil right, the freedom of a member's person alone excepted, are now abolished.

Acts 12th and 13th William III., cap. 3, s. 1. An action may be commenced against any peer, or member of Parliament, or their menial servants, &c., in the interval of Parliament; viz.—from and immediately after the dissolution or prorogation of any Parliament until the meeting of a new one, and from and immediately after any adjournment of both Houses, for above fourteen days, until both Houses shall meet or reassemble; and the courts where such action shall be brought may, after such dissolution, prorogation, or adjournment, proceed to give judgment, and to award execution thereupon, notwithstanding any privilege of Parliament.

Act 10th George III., cap. 50, s. 5. Obedience to the Court of King's Bench, Common Pleas, and Exchequer, may be enforced against persons having privilege of Parliament, by distress infinite.

Of Bribery.

Act 7th William III., cap. 4, s. 1, 2. Candidates after the teste of the writ, or after any place becomes vacant, giving or promising any present or reward, to any person having a vote, for being elected, shall be incapable of serving in Parliament.

Act 2nd George II., cap. 24, s. 1. Electors are to take the bribery oath, if the same shall be demanded.

Act 2nd George II., cap. 24, s. 7, 8. Persons taking a bribe, or corrupting others, shall forfeit 500*l.*; but offenders not having been themselves before convicted, by discovering others shall be themselves indemnified.

Of Petitions.

Act 38th George III., cap. 52, s. 1. No petitions complaining of an undue return shall be proceeded upon, unless the same shall be subscribed by a person claiming therein to have had a right to vote, or be returned, or alleging himself to have been a candidate at the election.

Act 10th George III., cap. 16. A day and hour shall be appointed by the House for taking the same into consideration, and the Speaker shall give the notice and order to attend.

Act 11th George III., cap. 42, s. 2. No petition shall be taken into consideration within fourteen days after the commencement of the session, nor within fourteen days after the return filed.

Act 28th George III., cap. 52. In cases where the Speaker shall be informed of the death of any sitting member, or that any member petitioned against does not intend to defend his election, such Speaker shall immediately send notice thereof to the sheriff, who shall order a copy of the same to be affixed on the doors of the county or town hall, or nearest the church, and notice also to be inserted in the Gazette. The order for taking such petition into consideration shall also be adjourned.

Within thirty days after notice so inserted in the Gazette, any voter may present a petition to be admitted a party in the complaint.

Members giving notice of their intention to defend their election not to be admitted as parties against any such petition, nor to sit in the House till the petition is decided.

No proceeding to be had upon any petition, unless one of the subscribers enter into a recognizance to appear before the House at the time fixed for taking it into consideration; and if no recognizance be duly entered into, the order for taking the petition into consideration shall be discharged, unless cause shall be seen for enlarging the time.

Recognizances to be entered into before the Speaker, and the sufficiency of the sureties to be allowed of by him, on the report of two persons appointed by the Speaker to examine the same; of which two persons, the Clerk, or Clerk Assistant of the House, shall always be one, and one of the following officers, not being members, the other; viz.—Masters in Chancery, Clerks of the Court of King's Bench, Prothonotaries in the Common Pleas, and Clerks in the Court of Exchequer.

Sureties living more than forty miles from London may enter into reognizance before a justice; and affidavits made before a master in Chancery, or a justice, to be received as evidence of the sufficiency of sureties.
